GIVE HIM YOUR BEST, GIVE HIM YOUR ALL

Reference Scripture: Mark 12:41- 44 (KJV)

<sup>41</sup> And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

<sup>42</sup> And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.

<sup>43</sup> And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury:

<sup>44</sup> For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living."

Jesus was in the temple and he was sitting by the treasury and saw how people were coming to drop money into it. In our time, imagine Jesus sitting by the offering box and watching how people are dropping in their offerings seeing clearly what each one is dropping and a widow came out with two mites in her hand and she was declared as the only one who gave her best and all.

Imagine the mites as the smallest money in your currency probably 2 cents, 2 pence, 2 kobo etc. And yet Jesus declared her as the one who gave her best and all. Why?

Giving is a topic that many people do not want to hear about nor talk about. As a matter of fact, some have stopped attending church or any religious gathering because they don't want to hear about giving nor give. Giving is a voluntary transfer of property or gift (material, monetary etc.) to another person or group of people. It is important to note that it is a voluntary action. What you give depends on the situation. In the scripture above, the people gave money but God gave us his best and all too.

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16 KJV)

God gave an example of how and what should be given; giving his only begotten son shows He gave his best and all. Jesus is the only Son of God and He was given to the world by God. God didn't send angels to come and die for our sins; He gave his only begotten Son setting a pace for all on how and what should be given. God gave out of his love, unconditional love, freely, voluntarily and joyfully. Giving is not by size but by motive, God gave out of love so that should be your motive too. Your love for God and his kingdom should move us to give.

There is nothing you have that is not received from the Lord; all good and perfect gift comes from God the Father of lights (James 1: 17). What are you giving to the Lord? Giving is not just about giving anything; it is about giving your best and all to the one who owns the whole world. Some argue that since God created everything, then He doesn't have a need but God has a need.

THE NEEDS OF GOD

God wills that all men will be saved; that is why He gave his Son to die for the sins of the world. God needs you to give in order to spread the message of the cross so that men will be saved from eternal destruction (1 Timothy 2: 4). In order for this to be done, he has provided various means for the gospel to spread. He has raised some as evangelists, pastors, prophets, teachers and apostles to go out and do the work and he has put the needed resources in the hands of others to support those who are going. There are several needs today to advance God's kingdom here on earth.

God also needs you to be a blessing to others. God created all that man will need in the Garden of Eden before he created man. Man needs these creatures to survive too; the green leaves, the animal etc are all interdependent on each other for survival. So the concept of God is that we meet each other's need so anyone that does not give will not receive.

her son by giving her last meal to prophet Elijah. When your seed is not enough to eat, you sow it.

HOW TO GIVE?

1. Give as unto the Lord (Psalms 29: 1 - 2)
2. Give cheerfully not forcefully, there is no reward for forceful giving (2 Corinthians 9:6 - 7)
3. Give with thanksgiving (Psalms 100:4)
4. Give with a grateful heart (1 Thessalonians 5:18)
5. Give sacrificially (Acts 2:45)
6. Give your best and all (Genesis 22:1 - 19)
7. Give with all your abilities (Luke 21: 4)
8. Give by faith (Hebrew 11:4)
9. Give with expectations.

REWARDS FOR GIVING

You will also receive (Luke 6:38). God has a way of paying back for our giving. It might not be the exact way you sow it like receiving money for giving money. The reason why some people are alive today is because of their continuous giving. You will receive God's approval just like the widow in the reference scripture. Your giving will receive heaven's attention if you give right. It is not all giving that are accepted to God, money or wealth gotten in a sinful way is not acceptable to God. Give from a good source if you want to receive (Genesis 4:4 - 5).

A generational covenant can be established as a result of right and sacrificial giving, which means giving the best and all. Abraham gave his best and all that he has, his only son Isaac and a divine covenant was established (Genesis 22: 15 - 19)

Will you give God your best and all?

Oluwatoyin
Fatunsin

WHY GIVING?

1. Giving is God's instruction to man Luke 6: 38 "Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again." This simply means if you don't give, you can't receive! If you give, you will receive in an overflowing measure.
2. God taught us to give by giving his best and all; Jesus Christ. (John 3: 16)
3. Giving is living; if you don't give you can't live life fully.
4. Giving is profitable; when you give one, you can receive back in many folds.

WHAT CAN YOU Give?

God gave us all so you can give all as well. You can give your time, life, praise, worship, love, energy, money, property and whatever God has blessed you with. Remember everything came from God.

WHEN SHOULD YOU GIVE?

In season and out of season, in richness and in lack, every time you have the opportunity to be a blessing to someone or to the work of God. The best time to give is when you have in abundance and when you don't have. Your giving in abundance will speak for you in days to come; it is like a bank saving for the raining day. Your giving in lack or when it is not convenient is a sacrificial giving that can get you God's approval just like the widow in our text or save you in calamity to come like the widow of Zarephath in 1 Kings 17 who saved her life and that of

WHAT DO YOU SEEK?

Dear single sister, let me ask you, why are you so afraid? Why are you bowing to the earth in compromise, out of fear? Do you not know that God is able to do all things? Do you not know that the heavenly father knows that which you have need of, even before you ask? Have you no faith in God's ability to do all things? Each time you bow your head to the ground in compromise, you miss out on the opportunity to find JESUS in that situation. Like the disciples, you begin to seek the living God among the dead.

The disciples were supposed to wait in the upper room, expecting the infilling of the Holy spirit. Yes! They were to wait, but not in the grave! They were to wait at the point where Jesus would meet up with them. They were to wait looking up to Jesus, where Jesus would meet up with them. They were to wait looking up to Jesus, the author and finisher of their faith, not looking down in fear. The Holy spirit was not going to fill them in the grave, he would only meet with them in the upper room. Imagine if the disciples stayed by the grave for 40 days. Do you think the Holy spirit would have met them there? They would have waited, but not in the right location and they won't receive what they waited for.

Dear sister, there is a divine location and posture God expects you to take while you wait. He doesn't want you to wait in fear, compromise, agitation or worry! He “Let all your focus and hope be on Christ. Stop running around!”

“And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead” Luke 24:5

Relationships and marriage are hot topics for many single sisters. Social media is flooded with pictures and videos of one romantic proposal or extravagant wedding or the other, leaving many single sisters wondering when their time will come. I know that the pressure mounts as you advance in age, and that everywhere you go, people ask, “when will we celebrate with you!” Many zealous friends and family members have even started introducing you to several people, perhaps, God will use them for you. Some have gone as far as advising you to go back to your home country, because to them there are many more responsible men at home than abroad.

You have also started to hop from church to church. They have advised you to leave your small church for bigger ones, while others have asked that you dress in such a way as to attract a man, even if such dresses don't please God - all in a bid to increase your chances of meeting Mr Right. Each passing day increases your agitation, depression, loneliness and you are reaching a point where you no longer care who it is that comes your way, you are just desperately in need of a relationship.

said, casting all your cares on the Lord because he cares for you! He said, you should be anxious for nothing, but in everything, by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving make your requests know unto God.

So while you wait, delight yourself in the Lord and he will give you the desires of your heart Psalm 37:4. Enjoy your walk with God and grow in love with Jesus everyday! Jesus is enough for you. With Jesus by your side, you have everything, in fact, you lack nothing! Spend this time worshipping God extensively, studying the bible, listening to christian messages, praying and fasting, volunteering with your local church, winning souls for Christ. There are so many things to do, and you are fortunate to have so much time to do all these.

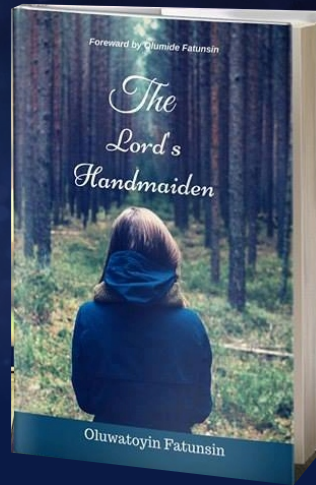

So while you wait, trust in the Lord with all your heart. Do not lean on your own understanding, in all your ways acknowledge him and he will direct your paths Proverbs 3:4-5. Let all your focus and hope be on Christ. Stop running around! God will meet you where he asked you to wait. God is too faithful, he will never fail. Those who put their trust in God are never put to shame! Stop changing churches, attending unnecessary ceremonies and doing those things you do out of fear! Trust in God's ability to bring his will your way. God will show up for you in due season.

Seek God sister and stop seeking a man!

SPIRITUAL KEYS TO A SUCCESSFUL MARRIAGE & PARENTING

From last edition; we examined vitals keys to a successful marriage and Parenting. Here are the last two keys:

KEY 3: A COMMITMENT TO GROW IN YOUR SEXUAL INTIMACY

KEYS TO A SWEET SEXUAL INTIMACY 1st Corinthians 7 vs.1-9,

1. Naked and not Ashamed: No beautiful and wonderful sexual intimacy without pure and truthful communication. Genesis 2:25
2. Pay attention to it because God delights in it. You must prepare yourself; you must add it to your daily life and do all that is possible to enjoy it to the fullness. Make deliberate effort to include it in your daily routine. Not everyday of course but have a full dose of it. Song of Solomon 1 vs.13
3. Create an atmosphere of romance between each other, talk to each other, be natural, let your self go and let God be glorified. Warning: No sex in Heaven it was Lazarus that was in Abrahams bosom not Sarah, check Luke 16 vs.23 because we are going to worship him both day and night so you better enjoy it here and now. Song of Solomon 3 vs.1
4. Identify every possible hindrance: Children disturbance, lack of time, Pressure of Job, lots of activities, prayer and fasting, stress etc. Put the kids to bed in good time, work out a schedule, take each other out and have a good evening, help in taking care of your friends kids so that they can also help you likewise.
5. Set the right mood. Communicate in love and build emotions from the moment you wake up. Don't wait until night only, be flexible, don't be rigid, no tradition. Sex is not meant for night times alone, whenever you have the opportunity maximize it and God will be greatly praised.
6. Buy gifts for each other, treat each other with love, go out, take walks together, do activities together, touch each other, help each other, in the kitchen, in the room, everywhere and create an atmosphere of true love. Create an atmosphere of fun, joy, go swimming, go walking, go studying the bible together etc.

BENEFIT OF A GREAT SEXUAL LIFE

1. Sex helps your spiritual life and particularly that of the man. A satisfied man is not looking around and jumping around, He is relaxed, full of grace and happily smiling ready to fulfill his ministry. Feed him, give him much more, let him relax in your arm, let her relax in your arm, trust God for grace and strength, receive grace and it will take you to a dimension of spiritual stability.
2. It's a great exercise it burns about 5 calories per minute. You do not need to run to the gym every day, you can also use this great tool to exercise your body and be fit.
3. it improves your sleep. It helps you to sleep well, it helps you to relax better and above all it takes a way Heat and Cold in this winter. Eccl 4 vs.11
4. It reduces stress from your body
5. It reduces the rate of heart attack.

KEY 4: A COMMITMENT TO A BETTER PARENTING SKILLS.

1. Need for Discernment: No great parents can happen without the operations of the gift of discernment. David was a general in battle but could not discern that something was wrong when his son Amnon was having an ungodly inordinate affection towards his sister. You must be able to discern your children as they grow older; you do not have to approve everything they desire, but check with God before approving their choices. 2 Samuel 13.

Implement necessary godly discipline when they err. David heard about the actions of Amnon and he failed to correct him, he did not take any action. He did not even bother to invite His daughter that was messed up. He was silent on it and Absalom took over the responsibility of His father and went to the extreme. 2nd Samuel 13 vs.2-29.

3. Need to identify with the children when they are going through hard times and emotional changes. Don't neglect them; don't say all manner of things against them. Sit with your children, share with them, identify with their wrongs, let them find joy and consolation in you both and let them be happy sharing their heart out. David could not invite Tamar His daughter to His palace to pray with her, share with her or even counsel her.
4. Pray for your children and invest into them. David could only discipline His children by keeping malice and staying away from them. The best way to discipline your children is not to refuse to talk to them or to keep them away. He kept Absalom away for three years because of his anger towards him. and when he brought him back he never sat down to discuss with him about his wrong doings. Don't operate like that, the children will not know what you believe, they will not know how to respond, they will not know how to follow your values. 2nd Samuel 14.

A final word to the Mothers: what will you pass unto your children?? 2nd Timothy 1 vs.5. Will you transmit your faith into your children?

1. Lois passed it unto Eunice and Eunice passed it unto Timothy.... What will we pass unto our generation?
2. History of Eunice: Acts 16 vs.1-4. She was Jew and her husband a Greek. More like an unbeliever.

3. 2nd Timothy 3 vs.14-15 : The mother taught him the holy scriptures since he was a child, what are you teaching your child? Timothy was taught by His mother he earned two books to his name in the bible, Samuel was taught from Infancy by His mother he also earned two books in the bible for himself, Peter had his mother in law living with him he also had two books in the bible to his name, John was brought by his mother to Jesus he also had three books to His name. What are you doing, when you are long gone what will the believers say about your children.

4. The brethren spoke well of Him. Acts 16 vs.1-4.
5. Paul wanted him because he was a wonderful instrument for mission.
6. The foundation created by His mother and grandmother made circumcision easy. Paul circumcised Him.

Pastor Temitope & Irene Agbana

Tell us about your background, education and salvation experience.

My name is Titilayo Ajoke Badejo. I am born into the family of an erudite man of God and I happened to be the first born of my father. I love God from my childhood and I always want to please him that is why they call me “mama prayer” because I love prayers.

I was born in Ibadan though my parents hail from Ekiti State. I had my primary & secondary education in Ibadan & later proceed to Kwara Polytechnics, Kwara State where I studied science laboratory technology. I have a feeling that God has special purpose for my life right from my childhood. Earlier as a minister's daughter, I had responded so many times for altar calls for salvation but in 1992 I made a final decision to accept Jesus fully and since then I had not look back.

How did you discover the purpose of God for your life?

I did not discover the purpose of God for my life until I got married to my husband Evang. Segun Badejo in 1999. I have been in prayer & singing ministry before then as a single but when I got married to my husband who had been into full time drama ministry, I just believed it was his ministry & as a dutiful wife, I kept supporting him. My husband is quiet type & always has little to say at home. But whenever anyone with the same vision visits, they will talk for hours nonstop. This always made me sad.

In 1996, I was encouraged by my husband to attend The Mount Zion Institute of Christian Drama. During one of the Morning Prayer termed Holy Ghost breakfast; our daddy in Lord, Evangelist Mike Bamiloje was led by God to pray for marriages. That was when the anointing and power came upon me to compliment my husband in the drama ministry. In the same year I left my job and joined him on full time in the ministry. Since then, our ministry; The Gideon Mission has been soaring on eagles' wing.

SPECIAL INTERVIEW WITH EVANG. TITILAYO BADEJO

The Challenges of a full time Drama Minister

Finance has always been the major challenge. But I thank God who has given me a man who is not only a husband but a father and brother; God used him to teach me faith.

Many times, he will tell me not just have faith & agree with him on any major step we want to take in the ministry and God has been giving me the grace to agree with him. His faith is a challenge to me but I learned that living by faith in the area of finances is always the best. We have embarked on so many missions within & outside Nigeria with little or nothing in our pocket. Our mission to Liberia April 2016 is a perfect example. We boarded flight to Liberia with only a token in our pocket yet so many exploits were done in that country by the grace of God. We have equally produced many movies by faith, so when I have doubts, I have learnt to close my mouth according to my mother in the Lord counsel Evang Gloria Bamiloye and pray instead. God has always surprise us.

How was it raising children in a faith based ministry full time?

Initially when the children were still young, I do stay back at home and pray for the work. At that time I only had the opportunity of going during long vacation. But now that the children are growing older, I now have more opportunity to go often monitoring the children with phone on daily bases. We have also involved our children in the work so they can understand the work. They always feature in our movies during the school long vacation and we sometimes take them along with us to mission field as well.

Tell us about your ministry activities

We had been involved in drama mission across Nigeria for many years. Whenever we travel, we minister on stage drama in churches, crusade and conferences. We also go to difficult mission field to help missionaries open up their mission stations to the Lord by staging powerful dramas. At the end of six weeks outreaches, we normally organize drama/film training session for those who are interested. So that after we leave, they will continue with the work of drama evangelism in that particular location. We have trained over a thousand drama ministers across Africa.

International Drama Mission; when and how?

The door to Africa countries opened in 2011 when we embarked on drama mission to Accra, Kumasi in Ghana. Since then, we had return to Ghana four times for mission. We have equally raised hundred of drama ministers in Nigeria with several movies produced to bless lives. We had equally done same in Cameroon, Kenya and Liberia launching at by faith as we trust God for every resources needed. Today our vision is broader. God has given us the vision of raising stars of another kind. These are drama ministers that will go through the length and breadth of Africa preaching via stage drama and movies pure message of the gospel. The Gideon Drama/film institute holds in Ibadan, Nigeria twice every year with attendance from within and outside Nigeria. In 2016, 250 people graduated from the institute. God has been using our stage drama ministrations to bring many into the kingdom.

remember a time when we ministered in a crusade in one of the Africa countries over 600 people answered altar call one single night. We have produced about 25 movies some are out some are still in the post production stage to God be the glory!

What are the challenges you faced in interpreting your roles in Christian Drama and Films?

There have been many challenges when I first started acting but I thank God for my husband. He's always there. If I have not married him I might not have been a fulfilled woman. He is always encouraging me, pushing and nudging me gently with assurance that I can do it. When I fail to measure up at times he's never discouraged. He's my mentor and pillar of strength beside God. I can fit in into any role today by the grace of God. Acting in Gospel movie is different from secular movie acting because in secular all you need is talent, but in Gospel movie, anointing is needed most. So staying in God's presence is not negotiable to be a good actress.

What does it take to make a great lasting Christian movie?

I have not written any script but I have always been learning from my husband that it takes inspiration from God and waiting in his presence to do it. I always take more time to pray for my husband, telling God to give him more inspiration and revelation

How many movies have you featured in?

I have featured in more than 40 movies in our ministry and outside. Some are; Majemu Ikoko, Forty years on knee, Kosi Awijare , Edge of success, State of madness, Caught in the storm, No hiding place, Come back home, Virus, Storming seas and lots more.

Any Advice for Single Sisters & Married?

My advice for the singles is that they should not be in a hurry to marry, because marriage does not worth it if you don't marry well. Marry a man of vision and he will bring out the treasures in you. He will develop you, mould you, make you and if you have a calling or vision, he will nurture it and cherish it and support it. A vision makes a marriage more interesting.

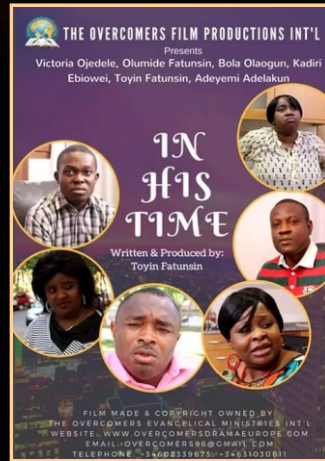

To the married, be an encourager to your husband even when you don't understand his vision, continue to pray and don't be discourage because at the end you will be the one to be celebrated most. And finally patiently endure whatever comes your way don't give up and God will reward all your labors.

LEAVING A DIVINE LEGACY

1 Chronicles 28:1 - 21

There are no gifts from parents to their children more precious than good training and morals. It is better to earn their respect and love by what we do than to force them to unwillingly get it. Legacy is something that is handed down from one period of time to another period of time. It can be something good or bad. It is an ongoing activity, it cannot die in as much as it is well handed down. Divine is something proceeding from God, heavenly. Divine legacy is something heavenly or godly handed down over a period of time. It is something that involves timing too, because it will come to a period that it might be too late to pass on legacy. As parents, knowingly or unknowingly, will exhibit some characters that are being observed by our children. Often times these characters or what we can call behaviours manifest without our knowledge. This happens because they have become part of us and so we do not think twice before we manifest them. The more reason we need to be godly in the first place so that we can manifest and transmit godly characters to our children that are looking at us as role models.

We are looking majorly at the book of 1 Chronicles 28 for this message to be well understood. David was a man after God's heart and so it was easy for him to instruct his son, Solomon in the ninth verse of the book of 1 Chronicle 28, to serve God with a perfect heart and a willing mind just like David his father did. As parents, we should desire to love God with the whole of our hearts, so when we tell our children same it will be easier for them to comprehend. The following points are the derived legacies from the life of David as a godly parent of Solomon.

1. Transparency, honesty and sincerity. David was honest enough to let Solomon and the entire Israelites know that God did not allow him to build the temple for him, neither did he make unnecessary excuse for himself why he was not allowed to build the temple. He told him the truth. David did not only show his strong sides to his son, he also let him know his weakness. As parents that are godly, let our children know when we do something wrong and also let them know that perfection is a thing we work towards. By doing this, the children will know that no one is actually perfect in the real sense of it but can only be with the help of God. A lot of parents push their children academically and fail to appreciate the little efforts the children are making at that moment. Most of these parents performed worse than their children when they were their age but they will never let the children know that instead they complain bitterly why they are not coming first in test. We need to be sincere and honest to them and also understand that the best we can do for them is to encourage them instead of condemnation. David is an example of a sincere parent, he did not withhold the truth from his son and this did not reduce him as parent either, instead it gave Solomon a better understanding why God chose him to build the temple for Him.

2. No form of bitterness or secrecy. In verse 11, the bible says David gave Solomon the pattern of the porch and all others, and the pattern of all he had by the spirit. David did not allow the work of flesh called bitterness to hold him down from giving specific instructions to his son about the building, instead he allowed the spirit of God to guide him. He did not choose to hide the facts from his son despite the fact that he couldn't do this special work for God. Many parents in life have become failures in one way or the other and instead of them to make sure that this act of failure is not repeated in the life of their children, they choose to display nonchalant attitude towards this. We should not let our past failures hinder us from being the perfect parents expected us to be by God. We should not let bitterness of the past hinder us from leaving divine legacy behind for our children. Let the children know the right thing to do in a situation where we as parents have acted wrongly. Do not hide any relevant

guide you bitterness.

information
that will

3. Godly action. Action speaks louder than voice is a common saying. In verses 9 and 10 of our text, just like it was mentioned in the introduction, Solomon was able to understand his father, David, when he was saying serve God with all your heart and mind. David lived such life and Solomon could see that and so it was easier for him to listen to his instruction and follow suit. A lot of parents these days do what they want forgotten that the children are looking at them and forming their personality through what they see. The actions of some parents are “do what I say and not what I do.” That cannot work at all. We should lead by example. When we serve God with all that are within us our children will follow same. When we cultivate the habit of being in church at all service days, they will see the necessity to do same. 1 Timothy 4:12.

4. Special instructions and guidelines. Again we see here how David passed the instructions on how to build the temple to Solomon in verse 11 of our text. Parents are supposed to be everything to their children from caretaker, counsellor, teacher, prophet to many roles we cannot mention now. It is our duty as parents to see that our children become what God ordained them to be. David ensured that his son got the main thing God wanted his son to do, he made it a point of duty that the instructions were handed to him specially and clearly too. He did not joke with it. Psalms 44:1-4 talked about how the fathers told their generation about God, of what great things He did for them and how He delivered them, then down to verse 4, that generation was able to claim this same God as their king. We need to tell our children about God all the time and guide them to fulfilling His purpose in life. We should feel obligated towards our children achievement and see to it that they become great in life. The basic instructions of life pertaining to life and godliness are the best legacies to leave for our children.

5. Words of encouragement. David encouraged his son, Solomon to be strong and be of good courage. He made it a point of duty to ensure Solomon was prepared psychologically. A lot of times we fail as parents to remove fear from the heart of our children. Most times we make them think life is full of bed of roses. Even the Bible says in this world we will have many troubles, but we should be of good cheer because the Lord has overcome all these for us. Right from their childhood days we must let them know that life is full of ups and downs but they should not be afraid but be encouraged to face any situation in life. With God nothing shall be impossible (Mathew 19:26). When they are faced with difficulty in life, they will remember these words of encouragement we have deposited in their mind and they will make use of them and help them in life. Many parents are just full of words of negativity. Words like you think you can make it, that is too hard, even I tried it and I was not successful etc. Let us build up in them emotional, intelligence and positive vibes to make them strong and achieve in life. And of course praying for them is a strong legacy too.

We cannot afford to raise ungodly children and profess to be Christians. We should ask God to give us all it takes to be godly parents. Timothy was a child raised by godly mother and grandmother. They both passed down divine legacy unto him, and he was able to demonstrate this faith too. 2 Timothy 1: 3-5. We are writing a story with our lives to our children, let's act well and godly. (Deuteronomy 6:6-9).

Sister faith confided in me how her husband slept with their housemaid but everything is under control now. Sis Flora, please, don't tell anyone.

Ha! Are you sure? Is he not the same Bro Paul who claimed to be holy by God's grace? Wonders shall never end. Bro Alex, nobody will hear a word from me.

A few hours later

Sister Loveline, are you busy? Let's pray for Paul, I mean holy Bro Paul. He romanced and did the unimaginable with their housemaid. Please, pray and don't reveal it to anyone.

Sister Patience, have you heard? That holy Bro Paul slept with their housemaid. Please, keep your mouth shut.

"A TALEBEARER"

"A talebearer revealeth secrets: but he that is of a faithful spirit concealeth the matter." (Proverbs 11:13)

Tale-bearing emits a threefold poison; for it injures the teller, the hearer, and the person concerning whom the tale is told. - C. H. Spurgeon

What to do:

A known gossip? Do not keep company with him/her.

Change the subject if someone comes to gossip.

See good in others.

Already trapped? Ask for God's grace and be determined to say the truth always.

Beloved, how faithful are you?

"A FAITHFUL MAN"

"Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: but a faithful man who can find?" (Proverbs 20:6)

If you don't know your worth, you can be tossed here and there by every deceitful proposal.

Who can find a faithful man?

- A woman whose life is hidden in Christ Jesus.
- A woman who isn't moved by the things of this world.
- A woman who has a purpose to fulfil.
- A woman who is willing to obey God.
- A woman whose mind is renewed daily through the Word of God and prays regularly.
- A woman who is equally faithful and moderate in all things.

Sir, you don't have to flaunt your wealth and spiritual curriculum vitae in order to convince the sister.

Be humble in your approach and be truthful.

Know the mind of God and grow into maturity.

You are yet to understand my point. Apart from being a Tongue-speaking Christian and chartered accountant, my father owns an estate in the UK and I own a ....

Please, what are you driving at? You have been speaking about your wealth and spiritual exploits.

Claudia, what else do you want? I have the money to take care of you. Isn't that the will of God for you? Just say yes to my proposal. That's all.

Thank you Solomon, the rich man. Apart from money, what else do you offer? I am priceless and you aren't the will of God for my life.

DAYS OF LITTLE BEGINNINGS, DO NOT DESPISE!

This column designed is to encourage women to engage their hands productively in business. This edition is written by Sister Victoria Iyiola, a work at home businesswoman based in East Moline, ILLINOIS United States of America

Zechariah 4:10

I feel humbled by this opportunity given to me by God and the administrators of this magazine; to write an article encouraging women on how to start their own business at home especially those who are living abroad. I am giving it the above title because there must be a beginning for everything and things are not always looking completely good or beautiful at the beginning as the bible even emphasizes it (Genesis 1:1).

Why should I have a business since my husband has a very good job and caters for all the family needs?

Proverb 31 encourages women not to idle. A virtuous woman does everything in her capacity to support her husband and the financial aspect should not be left out. 2 Thessalonians 3:10 also encourages us to work. I personally encourage women to have their own business no matter how little because it gives them the opportunity to attend to their primary responsibility that is their family.

How do I know what type of business to start?

Knowing the mind of God, the interest of an individual and the need of the environment all have important roles to play in this particular area. First I encourage prayerfully considering it and be sure what you are starting is what you have skills for and interested in. Start by thinking about the things you enjoy doing. For example, if you truly love young children – babies and toddlers, you may consider opening up a very small in-home daycare, simply because you personally enjoy the experience so much. If you enjoy designing and creating items like me, you may consider making those items. It does not have to be something that others consider fun. It is about what you enjoy doing. What things do you do that leave you feel good after you do them? Then be sure it is the need of the people in your environment.

How do I make my business known to people?

One of the attributes of a virtuous woman is being friendly. It is very easy if you have good relationships with people.

If your business is a service, tell friends, family members, and church members about it and be ready to give them discount of some sorts at the beginning.

If you are into producing making visible items, be happy to give them as gifts to people. I call it seed sowing when I started my business and I have never regretted it as God as used the method to advertise my products.

There are also many platforms to sell on the internet these days especially for people living in the western world like Etsy, Shopify, Amazon, Ebay, Facebook and so on. Please do a research to find out what works for your products. You can also make your own website if you are able to. You may also want to do an online market survey for items similar to yours to come up with reasonable prices

What legal aspect of my business should I consider?

This will vary based on your location (the country and state you live) Each country and state has different policies when it comes to registering a business, paying taxes and so on. Please check with an attorney or whoever is best to know the steps to take.

Home Business Ideas:

(1) Catering: If you love to cook, take the “Blondie” route and start a home catering business. Catering is a business that is perfectly designed to reward those who plan well, and it can often fit perfectly into weekends, which could work great if you need your husband to stay at home with kids.

(2) Babysitting: Got lots of evenings free? Love children? Babysitting may be a great side business for you. Keep an eye on multiple children on Friday and Saturday nights and you can earn some easy cash overtime.

(3) Blogging: If you enjoy writing, find a topic you are passionate about and start a website dedicated to covering that topic and anything else interesting you want to talk about. All you need is a computer, some time, and some energy to write consistently. It can start as a hobby and turn into a business over time. It cost just a little to host a blog per month or you can start hosting free with Google. You can be paid for advert on your blog. All you need to do is to pull crowd to your blog.

(4) Buying and reselling on eBay: Thanks to technology, there are more opportunities than ever to buy and resell products for extra money. Plenty of people buy local and in-demand products at a discount and resell them on eBay for profit.

(5) Dog walking: Dog walking is the perfect side business for anyone who has a few hours to kill during the day. Once you get a few clients, you simply need to pick up their dogs and take them on long, leisurely walks that will tire them out and keep them in shape. Bonus: Walking dogs may help you in your quest to stay fit as well.

(6) Freelance writing: If you are good with words, you might be able to find some work as an online freelancer. A variety of publications needs online content in the form of stories, product or service descriptions, and reports, and if you have the talent and skill, you could easily be the one to create them. Fortunately, all you need is a computer and Internet connection to get started. RealWritingJobs.com is a great place to start. You can also check out ww.fiverr.com where you can write for money.

(7) Creating custom clothing: The Internet has created opportunities for people who can sew and design custom clothing for special events. Many people have found success creating custom birthday outfits for babies and selling them on sites like Etsy or eBay, for example. In addition to selling online, you could also market this service to people in your local community.

(8) Home daycare: Many states allow people to start an in-home daycare with minimal licensing and paperwork. If you love children and have plenty of time and space at home, this is a perfect business to get into. All you need is a safe room or two for children to play in, some toys and activities, and a whole lot of patience.

(9) Social media expert: Almost everyone uses Facebook, Twitter, and Pinterest these days, but did you know that many companies will pay people to help them manage their social media accounts — sometimes even part-time from home? To find social media jobs, you can start by contacting businesses with a social media presence and scanning sites like Upwork.com for opportunities. Check out PaidSocialMediaJobs.com for more information on how to get started with this type of business and to find companies willing to pay for your services.

(10) Gourmet cookie making: If you love baking and are able to keep your hand out of the proverbial cookie jar, making gourmet cookies is a great side hustle with plenty of long-term potential. Start by learning how to execute unique and tasty gourmet cookie recipes, then seal the deal by creating or purchasing professional-looking packaging. Sell your cookies online or to people in your local community.

(11) Personal Chef: I recently heard of a woman who earned quite a bit of money as a very part-time chef. Once a week, she would prepare a homemade meal for a family,

WOMEN IN BUSINESS

then do all the dishes and cleanup work. This gives the family plenty of together time, while putting some cash in the woman's pocket. If you love to cook, this can be a great opportunity

(12) Knitting, crocheting, or quilting: Skilled at creating blankets and sweaters? There's a huge market for these types of items – even better, you can usually make them in your spare time whenever you have it. As always, local shops and sites like Etsy are great venues to sell such items.

(13) Jewelry making: If you have a good eye for detail work and a lot of patience, homemade jewelry can be quite profitable. As with other items on this list, there are many opportunities to sell such items through local gift shops, craft fairs, or sites like Etsy.

(14) Proofreading and editing: Have strong English skills and exceptional grammar? You may have opportunities to work as a proofreader from home. You can just advertise this on your Facebook page to get started. Seek out those who might actually be able to use your services and advertise directly to them.

(15) Slideshow making: Many people would love to have a beautiful slideshow to commemorate the passing of a loved one, an anniversary, or a special birthday. With a computer and some select software, you could quickly turn anyone's pictures into a beautiful, custom slideshow, and profit handsomely for your time and effort.

(16) Sewing and alterations: If you are quite handy with a sewing machine and can hem or modify clothes, you could easily take this a step further and offer services to others, doing basic garment repair and modification for a small price on using your sewing machine.

(17) Soap making and spa products: Making amazing homemade soaps and other spa products isn't as hard as you might think – I make them a lot both for sale, gift and my family use – it just takes time and patience. Again, people value handmade items like these, which can easily be sold through local gift shops and websites like Etsy.

(18) Tutoring: Do you major in a subject like English, history, or math in college, or do exceptionally well on the SAT exam? Do you have patience with children? If so, you likely have what you need to tutor kids in particular subjects. Seek out parents or teachers and let them know that you tutor students in a certain subject, and offer materials for them to share, and phone calls will often trickle in. You can get going locally or expand across the country by offering to tutor online.

(19) Virtual assistant: Many ultra-busy professionals appreciate having someone who can check and answer their email, organize task lists for them, update their calendars, and other administrative tasks, with minimal interaction. The best part is that you can provide this service from home with a good Internet connection.

(20) Website design: Many small businesses in your community could use a very basic web presence to tell others about their business. Quite often, these businesses do not have a large budget for such things. That is where you come in – get a bunch of clients from the local community by beating the pavement, create sites for them, and maintain them for a small fee. Get enough businesses and you have a nice side business of your own that does not require a ton of maintenance time.

These are just some of the many business opportunities a woman can do from the comfort of her home. However, there are many more ideas out there to work with.

As you embark on your new side business, remember that you are only limited by your own imagination and skillset. Do not be afraid to be creative, and do not let anyone tell you that you cannot succeed.

You never know, unexpected success might be right around the corner.

Above all, trust in the promises of God to bless the works of your hands.

WHEN AN OPEN DOOR IS A DEADLY TRAP

BY: OLUMIDE FATUNSIN

Angela turned around to go back to the house, she met a dog barking and wagging its tail.

She tried to bypass the dog but the dog kept barking as if to say "Please, come and see".

Angela came near to the dog and she found a big travelling bag with foul smell oozing out of it.

She developed cold feet suddenly. "What is inside? A human being or something else? My God!" Many thoughts at the same time.

Angela called the attention of a passerby to the strange bag. The man pulled it out of the flowerbeds and opened it. Meanwhile, Angela has closed her eyes to avoid rude shock. The man cried out, "A dead dog". Angela opened her eyes to confirm what the man said.

Angela left the scene without saying a word. She sobbed along the way until she entered her house and locked the door firmly out of fear. Before she could switch on the light, the whole sitting room lit up with bright light. She turned and saw a man sitting on the sofa with a knife and orange.

Angela staggered and tried to flee but was held back by two hefty men.

"Leave me alone. Who are you?" Angela cried and fought frantically to free herself.

The man with the knife rose up and started peeling the orange until he got to Angela.

"Woman, will you like to taste it?" asked the man.

Angela looked up and shouted back at him, "Amos, what else do you want?"

Amos laughed so hard including the two hefty men.

"Where did you keep my daughter?" Angela asked Amos in an angry tone.

Amos forced the orange into her mouth and asked her to confirm the taste.

"Sweet....sweet....sweet" Amos quipped.

"Where is my daughter?" Angela asked again while still being held by the men.

"Agent Osulof Edimulo, answer her!" Amos commanded. One of the hefty men slapped Angela so hard that she fell down. Amos lifted her up and helpless Angela looked at him with one eye while the other one was closed. He shook her rigorously and hit her head against the wall. Angela shouted due to the impact while holding her head with her two hands.

"Mummy
 . . . . .
 Mummy..
 ..mummy
 " h e r daughter cried out when she heard the cry of her mother.

A m o s
 commanded the man holding the daughter upstairs to silence her. Angela tried to rise up when she heard the cry of her daughter but there was no strength. She tried several times to lift herself but to no avail. Her daughter cried out again, "Mummy, come and help me". Angela almost lifted herself to help her daughter but was kicked again by Amos.

Amos knelt beside her and placed the knife on her neck and asked her, "Angela, what do you want to tell your daughter?" Angela was about to lift herself when the doorbell rang. Immediately, the men positioned themselves and Amos went to answer the visitor. When he opened the door, Kate entered in. Amos asked her to go upstairs until further notice. He ordered Agent Edimulo to get him a cup of water. Amos rolled the sleeves of his shirt, collected the cup of water from him and poured it on Angela.

Angela sprang up and sat while still holding her head with traces of blood on her left ear.
 "Please, let me go away with my daughter" she said in a low voice. Amos smiled and commanded to bring her daughter. Matt appeared with her daughter and brought her downstairs.
 "You! Are you part of them?" Angela asked in dismay. Matt ignored her but pushed her daughter towards Amos. Angrily, Amos gave him a hot slap for pushing her.

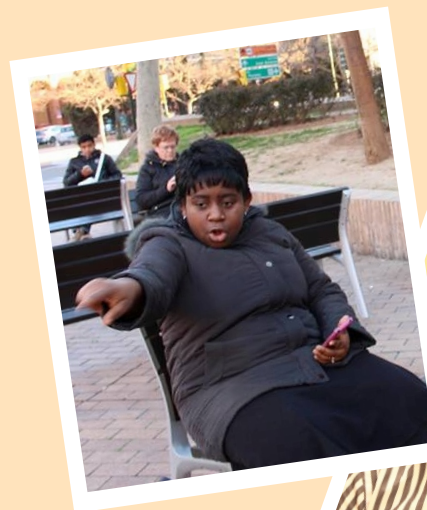

Matt apologized for his rude behaviour and rubbed his cheek to soothe his pain. Annie struggled to free herself to go and hug her mother but Amos firmly held her left hand. Angela couldn't stand up but pleaded with Amos to release her daughter. They all mocked her and laughed her to scorn while Annie struggled helplessly to free herself.

With great passion and motherly love springing up from within, Angela stood upright holding the knife Amos left when Kate rang the doorbell. Angela held it with her two hands with the sharp end facing her stomach.
 "I will kill myself if you don't release my daughter"

Angela shouted with her voice shaking.
 "Mummy..... Mummy" Annie cried out. Amos stepped forward and brought Annie to her.
 Angela threw away the knife and hugged her daughter with tears flowing freely. After a while, Kate came downstairs with the spy cameras.

"Kate, what are you doing here? Are you also part of them?" Angela queried. Kate came to pat her and whispered to her ears, "I am your friend but I like money more than you"
 On hearing that, Angela pushed her away and held her daughter closer. Amos collected the spy cameras and dangled them before Angela to show how she has been monitored for some weeks.
 Angela shook her head in dismay and the thought of how to flee from these dangerous people filled her mind.

"You pushed me into this mess, young woman" Amos confronted her. Angela didn't respond. Amos continued, "You know how much I loved you but you allowed the love of our daughter to deprive your love for me" Angela drew her daughter closer again from being snatched away.

"You preferred to shower your love on Annie but you neglected and abandoned me. I pleaded with you and even gave you more than enough to satisfy you. What did I get in return? Nothing..... Nothing"

 Amos said with tears on his face.

Amos continued, "You were transferred to this city and you didn't bother to ask for my opinion. I couldn't concentrate in my place of work and the reward of my halfhearted loyalty was to be sacked. What did you say? You told me to find my way and come back after amassing great riches to take care of our daughter. I roamed about for two years like a wanderer seeking greener pastures. I was advised to claim my right and....."

The light went off abruptly and the main door was opened suddenly. There was a mild commotion and someone cried out in pain. Tony, the second hefty man switched off the light, hit Amos with a club and his cry rent the air. A young woman, Leah who was armed opened the door from outside and forcefully took Angela and Annie away.

Before Tony could escape, Matt and Kate overpowered him. He struggled with them and eventually gave Kate a blow on her spinal cord. Within twinkling of an eye, Kate was lifeless on the floor. The light was switched on again. Both Matt and Tony looked in the direction of the kitchen while still fighting. Blood-drenched Amos pointed a pistol at them and cried out, "Who is on my side?" They stopped fighting and looked at each other.

"I said who is for me?" Amos asked again with a loud voice. Suddenly, they heard loud and repeated breathings. They looked in the direction of Kate. Matt rushed to her side to resuscitate her but it was too late. Amos pointed his pistol at them and began to curse and abused them.

"Do you think you can outsmart me? I employed both of you and your secrets are with me" he boasted. He spat on them at intervals. However, Matt tried to plead with him but Tony remained adamant.

Later, they heard the siren of the police and fled except Tony. He looked behind him and saw Leah holding a device. Both of them laughed having tricked them with the fake police siren. Leah walked to where Kate was, she heard her faint breathing and called Tony to help her.

On the hospital bed, Kate repeatedly asked Leah why she was brought there. Leah didn't say anything but shook her head. Soon, a nurse came in and gave her another injection. She slept off immediately.

Tony came in with Angela and Annie. Leah smiled and went to meet Annie to kiss her. Angela turned to Tony and hugged him. "Thank you.....thank you" Angela said with joy.

Tony beckoned to Leah to bring Annie closer. His muscular right arm lifted Annie with ease. He looked straight into her eyes and said, "Annie, how do you feel now?" Annie replied "Papa, I want chocolate" Tony dipped his hand into his back pocket and brought out her favourite chocolate. "Thank you papa" she said. Then, a doctor and a nurse entered and asked them to leave the room.

Tony became suspicious when he saw another doctor trying to enter the room where Kate was receiving her treatment. He informed Leah to watch over Angela and Annie while he kept monitoring Kate. After 3 hours, something unusual happened. Another person was hospitalized and someone received strange information.

KEEP YOURSELF PURE

“Lay hands suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.” (1 Timothy 5:22)

The Bible enjoins us to keep ourselves pure irrespective of the corruptions in the world. If we are willing to say “No” to counsels of the devil, God is ready to help us by His power.

Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Don't give in to sin.

Just a little sin can destroy one's destiny and relationship with God.

Rely on God always for strength and He will help you.

WHO IS YOUR SPONSOR?

This is a column for single sisters with a calling to serve God in one capacity or the other within the church and in independent ministry.

"A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things." (Ecclesiastes 10:19)

Money is the wheel of evangelism goes the popular saying to buttress the fact that money is essential in preaching the gospel of Jesus. Whatever field that the Lord has called you to, you need money to get some certain things done. So often times in ministry as a single sister, you will be faced with needs for the ministry assignment either to organize a program, go to evangelical outreaches, honour invitations, produce an album, to shoot a movie among other things at one time or the other. So the question comes up "Who is your sponsor?" How do you go about getting money to do his business?

One of the things that the Lord taught me early in ministry is to always see him as my sponsor. Initially, I used to write letters seeking for financial support and the responses weren't encouraging. The Lord told me that if I can depend on him, He will show me ways to go about getting the needed funds; relying totally on God's provision is the best way to get the needed funds to run the ministry.

One of the fears that some of our leaders had back then when the Lord called me into ministry was how I would get the money to run the ministry. One or two speculated that probably I get impregnated while trying to source funds for the ministry. I took the word to the Lord and thanks be to God that evil prediction didn't come true, the Lord kept me and provided as well. God taught me to depend on him and I will be sharing some of these vital lessons with you.

YOU ARE NOT EMPTY

If God is your sponsor, then you must listen to him and pay attention to his leading. I developed love for baking a few years before the Lord called me into the ministry. Though I didn't have any formal training in it, I just followed recipes and learnt on the job. I believe strongly that the Lord breath on me to be able to do it so He can use it for the ministry. So I realized that as God is my sponsor, he created me with something, I am not empty just like the widow in 2 Kings 4: 1-7 who ran to Elisha to get out of debt. I have a little oil too and that is that baking skill so I started using it to get funds.

As tiny as I was in stature, people believed in me after sometimes that I can render good catering services. So I started getting customers and it was the profits that I started using to run the ministry affairs. I didn't wait for manna to rain from heaven; I used my skill of baking to make money and the Lord blessed me. The business began to grow and I started training others collecting a token from them to get trained from the knowledge I have acquired via following recipes. Not only that, I started catering for party employing the hands of local cooks and young people like me as servers. I denied myself of so many things young growing lady earning money will buy, my usual logo when I am asked to buy expensive clothes; jeweleries and others are "You want me to buy this one when souls are perishing" Many times I have prayed to the Lord to bring catering contracts so I can have money to go to Nigerian secondary outreaches and He always answered. Whatever blessing comes into the ministry was majorly used in the ministry. I was not looking around for people to give most times; I was praying that God brings customers for my catering business so I can use the profit. So the first person to give to your ministry is YOU! I don't have a personal account back then and even till now, whatever God gives me I give back and there is nothing I have that I can't give God. Because God is my sponsor, I have always been getting resources to do his work sometimes I might have to wait for days, weeks or months but He is never late.

Dear Single sister serving Jesus, let God be your sponsor, you have something that God can bless and use to bless his work in your hands. It might be your pocket money, salary, gift, your profit from a business no matter how little it is, you can still do something for the Lord. Don't wait for donation, be the first to donate and God will bless you as you do so.

SPECIAL TIME OUT WITH MINISTER EVELYN NOSAKHARE IMONITIE

When a woman gets married, she has certain expectations from her husband as a partner but then suddenly the man receives a calling from God and the work must start immediately. Starting a church outside the shores of Africa has its own peculiar challenges so also the role of a pastor's wife in such a church.

Minister Evelyn Nosakhare Imonitie shares with us her personal experiences as a pastor's wife in Diaspora. She is the wife of the General Overseer of Christ Ground of Truth Mission Int'l with the headquarters of the church in Murcia Spain. She hails from Edo State, Nigeria but presently living in Spain where she met and got married to her husband, Pastor Ernest Imonitie.

DID YOU EVER DREAM OF BECOMING A PASTOR'S WIFE?

Not at all although when my family members in Nigeria heard that I was getting married; they called to ask me if I was marrying a pastor because that was what they were told. I told them "No" because my husband has not received the call as at that time. I never desire nor pray to be a pastor's wife. I just wanted to serve God in my own little corner.

THE CALL

A f t e r marriage, I had my first child and later I had a revelation that I later shared with my husband on how God handed a new building to us to oversee. About two weeks later, my husband called on his way to work and shared a scripture that he received from the LORD which confirms his calling into ministry.

fasted and prayed over both revelations for some days and we got direction from the Lord to start a church.

HOW DID YOU START?

The church started in our living room in Murcia Spain in 2008 with a couple who has two children so a total of four adults and three children held the first service of Christ Ground of Truth Mission Int'l.

WHAT WERE THE CHALLENGES YOU FACED AT THE BEGINNING?

There were fierce oppositions from men of GOD and other people. We were mocked; it went on for some times. I went into prayers and kept on encouraging my husband to move on. I stood by him because I knew clearly that God called him. Then the Church began to grow and later we rented a hall to use to hold Church services.

WHAT ARE THE CHALLENGES YOU FACED AS A PASTOR'S WIFE?

At the beginning there were no challenges as such until much later. One of the members, a woman who started with us in the sitting room had a health challenge, a serious one that later nearly turned to spiritual case of a strange spirit and she had a nine month old baby with her. She was later taken back home in Nigeria and I was left with the baby at a particular time to care for him for almost a year. It was tough for me as there were side talks. As at the time the father handed over the baby to me, he was infected with rashes and pus were coming out from head to toe, very irritating but I took care of him not minding that my son can get infected as well. It was tough but God helped me.

Everybody except you to be in the spirit all the time; you can't do what others are doing, if you do it becomes a problem as a pastor's wife.

At the home front-my husband is very caring but sometimes he is busy with church activities and his job, I have to remain calm if he is not available. If he is not at home due to church related issues or his secular job, I have to stay awake till he comes back and attend to him. Sometimes we go out with the children to shop, eat and stroll together.

WHAT IS YOUR ASSIGNMENT IN THE MINISTRY?

I started preparing the Sunday school material and also teach during Sunday school right from the inception of the church. So as the ministry grows, we had workers joining the Sunday school department handling the classes while I now coordinate them. I also oversee the women ministry of the church as a leader although after eight years I appointed executives to work with me in the women ministry. We hold women prayer meeting once a month and a yearly women program for two days May/June. I also hold women summit every year February/March where we pray for homes. I also minister in word sometimes in the church and also honor invitation for preaching engagement in other churches.

FINAL WORD

Pastor's wives need to be patient, without patient you can't help the man to build. Avoid suspicion, but be sensitive and prayerful.

Never go against the vision of your husband and don't stand in his way of growth; support him in prayers so he won't go astray. Encourage your husband from time to time. Above all, submission is very important to your husband, both old and young in the ministry.

I HAVE A STORY TO TELL

BRIEF PROFILE OF EVANGELIST TOYIN FATUNSIN

Oluwatoyin gave her life to Jesus Christ in October 1991 in Ibadan, Western Nigeria at a tender age. She has been growing in the knowledge of Christ Jesus since then. She is a woman with more than a passion for God and his purpose; a filmmaker, playwright, actor and director who was called into drama ministry and started her own ministry, The Overcomers Evangelical Ministries International (a drama/film outreach ministry) on May 3rd 1996 while still in high school. She is a graduate of Ladoke Akintola University of Science and Technology in Oyo State Nigeria where she studied Science Laboratory Technology/Microbiology.

She is a youth evangelist who had spent many years reaching out to Nigerian Secondary School through an initiative of her ministry "Mission to Nigerian Secondary School" through drama and film before she became a filmmaker in 2005. She produced her first movie in 2005 titled "But for his Mercies" and was compelled to direct her own movie in 2007 due to circumstances beyond her control. She has since directed her own movies and television series in Netherlands where she was based from 2011 - 2015. In August 2015 by the prompting of the Lord, she relocated with her family to Spain to continue their work as drama missionaries. The Lord opened multiple doors of blessing to her and other areas of ministry like the drama college kicked off fully and she has been a guest speaker alongside her husband in various churches across Spain since their crossing over. She is based in Spain as at the time of this publication.

She has hosted and initiated by the prompting of The Lord many programmes to create awareness and also train on Christian drama; one of such is the yearly "Europe Drama Conference" where participants gather from various

She has hosted and initiated by the prompting of The Lord many programmes to create awareness and also train on Christian drama; one of such is the yearly "Europe Drama Conference" where participants gather from various European lands to be trained in an intensive programme on evangelical drama and film. She has produced evangelical movies in Nigeria and also in Netherlands alongside her husband, Dr. Olumide Fatunsin.

She is the founder and host of Daughters of Destiny, an arm of the ministry and also started the Daughters of Destiny Online Fellowship in May, 2011 at the prompting of the Lord to start an online fellowship on Skype where these daughters connect every two weeks to share the word and fellowship together from all over the world. She is the editor-in-chief of Daughters of Destiny Publications publishing Daughters of

Publications publishing Daughters of Destiny Magazine, a magazine for women and recently started a bi-monthly publication for women named “Destined Daughters” an e-publication blessing women across the nations.

She is an itinerary minister ministering the word in churches and also speaking as inspired by God in women conferences and programs with the power of God backing her up. Great testimonies abound to the glory of God.

She is a passionate woman and a goal getter who loves God with the whole of her being. To her the secret of success in ministry is complete obedience to God and following his leading. She is happily married and blessed with a son as at the time of this publication.

I HAVE A STORY TO TELL

I have many stories to tell of God's faithfulness to me and his call upon my life but my focus is on Daughters of Destiny Magazine. In May 2017, our ministry celebrated its 21st year anniversary and at that time we have 5 editions of the magazine published. At the inception of the ministry on May 3rd 1996, the Lord spoke to me about the magazine among other activities of Daughters of Destiny under the main ministry THE OVERCOMERS EVANGELICAL MINISTRIES INTERNATIONAL. The vision was for Daughters of Destiny to reach all females starting with singles and then married. I was a Senior Secondary School I student of Queen's School Ibadan Nigeria at that time so it was a vision bigger than my age. The Lord does not call the qualified; He chooses and calls out of his love and mercy.

The passion to reach out to women started during my secondary school days. I remembered vividly how I will wait after school hours to minister to my fellow students who were in the boarding house at that time, teaching the word of God and ministering deliverance and healing to them as they share various dreams while sleeping and these girls were far from home. Most time I left the school compound in the evening three to four hours after school might have closed in most cases. This went on for a long time.

Daughters of Destiny vision as I received from the Lord then was to hold outreaches for sisters, publish books and magazines among other things. So the first thing was to hold outreaches and the first sisters outreach was held in Ibadan in 1997 with my age group and contemporaries attending and we were blessed as we shared together.

In 2000, Daughters of Destiny Outreaches moved to Ladoké Akintola Akintola University of Science and Technology Ogbomoso Nigeria.

In 2009, I made an attempt to publish the maiden edition of the magazine; I contacted a few friends and colleagues in ministry to write in it creating different columns in the magazine. After writing, a dear friend and her husband, Mr & Mrs Francis Adesina edited the first magazine for free of charge. I was faced with the challenge of publishing which was 100 copies minimal that can be printed in Nigeria at that time. I struggled with it and prayed for almost a year until the Lord spoke to my heart. He gave me a unique idea and that is an online magazine where people can read free of charge. So instead of being held back by lack of needed finance, the Lord provided a way out and that was how the maiden edition was published online. The second edition was also published online a year later and thereafter the Lord provided a way to to publish hard copies of the third edition in 2012 after traveling out of the country and now as a married woman living in Europe.

To the glory of God, bountiful testimonies have been coming in from readers and that was not all, after the third edition which was the first edition to be published as hard copies, The Lord raised a brother for us whom He gave skills and grace to design the magazines since that time. He is dedicated, hard working and serving the Lord with excellent spirit backing up this vision. May the Lord continue to reward him for his labour of love.

What if I had given up on the vision when there was no money? Money can never stop God's work, there are millions of ways by which we can get his work done if only we can seek God's face and get his direction. This is my story of God's faithfulness, back up and support. Whatever vision God has given you will surely come to pass even though it tarries.

"For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry." (Habakkuk 2:3)

Don't give up on your vision!

Overcomers Members Celebrate 20th Ministry Anniversary in Nigeria (07-05-2016)

About a year before we relocated to Europe the Lord began to prepare my heart to train the members of the ministry to stand. The Lord said the work is not about me so whether I move from Nigeria or not the work must continue so a few days to my departure from Nigeria in 2011, the brethren gathered in y house for a 3 days retreat after which I handed over the assignments in Nigeria to our members Dr. Toyin Oladeji, Sunkanmi Shangodare and Dr. Segun Akinyelure.

They have been running with the vision, going for ministrations, mission to Nigerian secondary schools, film productions, organized programmes to mention a few and so it is important for us to hold a thanksgiving for the ministry 20th anniversary in Nigeria as well. So on Saturday 7th May 2016 as we were celebrating in Spain, they also celebrated in Nigeria. It was glorious!

We return all glory to Jesus! We are Overcomers!

GOD CELEBRATED OUR 21ST ANNIVERSARY FOR US

Sometimes in April 2017, my husband and I were discussing about our upcoming 21st Anniversary to hold as an outreach program to bless lives. Between our 20th anniversary and now, the Lord has done many wonderful things through us and for us. Besides 21 years of following God's vision passionately worth giving thanks to God. We dropped the idea later considering our financial situation. We didn't inform anyone about it not, even our members. A few days later the thought came back to our mind to do something so, we discussed it again. This time I mentioned some specific things we need to settle and then said If God wants us to celebrate then He should settle some urgent needs and of course, he should provide specifically for the anniversary. I just said it casually while busy in the kitchen and God heard my words.

So, we decided to celebrate and we prayed. God instructed us on what we need to do, He inspired us to encourage with awards some drama ministers who have been trained by us in time past and are functioning in the drama ministry in their various countries. We chose 7 people from 4 different countries and on Saturday 6th May 2017, we gathered together to praise God for his faithfulness. Due to the shortness of time, five of the awardees couldn't come down but sent in video clips to tell us what they have been doing in their various drama groups and ministries. The purpose of the award is to encourage them to keep pressing forward in drama ministry.

One of the highlights of the program was the dedication of our latest movie "Subtle Game" written and produced by my dear husband, the movie was dedicated unto God and cast and crew members were prayed for. Pastor Adeyemi Adejayan (Pastor, RCCG Grace Center Zaragoza Spain) who is also an alumnus our drama college and one of the awardees ministered to us in words and also prayed for the ministry. A brief documentary of the ministry was also shown and there was music from various ministers and we celebrated God's faithfulness together with a thankful heart as we look forward to more fruitful years in ministry. "Brothers, I do not consider myself yet to have laid hold of it. But one thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is ahead, I press on toward the goal to win the prize of God's heavenly calling in Christ Jesus. Philippians 3: 13-14

ANSWERING HIS CALL IN A STRANGE LAND

Often time's women with a call of God on their life migrate to another country for various reasons; these women are often faced with unique challenges of fulfilling the call of God upon their life in the new land. Some women receive the call of God into ministry on arrival into a new country or after some times. This column will feature the stories of such women, challenges they face and how the Lord has been helping them to fulfill their mandate in the foreign land.

This edition features Pastor (Mrs.) Hephzibah Irhabor. She is the visionary of Anointed Daughters of Deborah "Built to Last" vision reconnecting people with God. She reaches out to families and singles. Her joy is seeing family living happily together and singles been fulfilled. She is happily married and based in Guadalajara Spain as at the time of this writing. She tells her story to encourage a woman with a calling out there.

Migration & Settlement

Answering the call of God in the land of Spain Europe was quite tough for me. I mean starting fully to do what I was called to do; reaching out to singles and married. I came into the land of Spain from Nigeria with so much fire and enthusiasm in 2005 but getting here I discovered Christianity in Europe is a different ball game so much luke warmness and immorality everywhere. I want to say this to be a genuine child of God in Europe especially this land of Spain you must be a lover of God and be deeply rooted in the word of God. My standing and consistency in the faith has really been by the Grace of God, discipline and the determination to be all that I am created to be.

The Challenge

The attitude of the people towards the gospel was another area I had to deal with so much compromise there were times I had to keep to myself cause people around me were living contrary to what the word of God says and I was avoiding been negatively influenced but thank God he gave me a voice in the midst of all this and I was able to stand out. God helped to build a life of integrity to the Glory of his name I do not take it for granted at all.

The Vision

I got the vision of Anointed Daughters of Deborah on 8th of September 2011 but I didn't step out immediately it took me about 3 years plus to say a final yes to God. My fear was how do I start? I was focusing on my own abilities rather than focusing on God that called me and gave me the vision. I was limiting myself and limiting God. But thank God I attended a national women's program of RCCG Spain in 2014 and a word came directly as the guest speaking was ministering. It was so clear that I knew it was the set time for me to arise and start doing what God has called me to do. There are time we feel we don't have what it takes, how and where to start. If the Lord has called you to start where you at the moment please do so, don't doubt him. He will take you one step at a time and that has been my experience these few years. What the Lord wants is for us to say "Yes Lord! I will go wherever you send me!"

WOMEN IN MINISTRY

Spouse Response

My husband had always given me his full support and backing financially, morally and emotionally. He has really made been in ministry very easy for me. I have never had a no you can't go there from him he trust my judgment thank God for that, he believes so much in me he has also been a source of inspiration cause I use to be very timid. But he also tells me I have what it takes to be the best in what God has called me to do. He makes the job easy, he been very supportive and I bless God for giving me such a wonderful husband. He is such a blessing to me.

The Activities

The vision started with just 12 women attending the very 1st program in 2015. In August 2017, we had a wonderful two days gathering with the theme “Built to Last” with a guest minister coming in from Nigeria. It was a huge task but God made it possible with about 40 people in attendance with amazing testimonies of answers to prayers. I have come to understand that all God requires from us as his daughters is just simple obedience. May God help to us be quick to obey him, prompt obedience because delayed obedience is disobedience? We will all finish well in a Jesus Name.

Healthy Eating for Women

A balanced diet is a cornerstone of health. Women, like men, should enjoy a variety of foods, such as whole grains, fruits, vegetables, and healthy fats, low-fat dairy and lean protein. But women also have special nutrient needs, and, during each stage of a woman's life, these needs change.

Eating Right

Nutrient-rich foods provide energy for women's busy lives and help to prevent disease. A healthy daily diet includes:

- At least three 1-ounce servings of whole grains such as whole-grain bread, cereal, pasta, brown rice or oats.
- Three servings of low-fat or fat-free dairy products including low-fat or fat-free milk, yogurt or cheese.
- Five to 6 ounces of protein such as lean meat, chicken, turkey, fish, eggs, beans or peas and nuts.
- Two cups of fruits — fresh, frozen or canned without added sugar.
- Two-and-a-half cups of colorful vegetables — fresh, frozen or canned without added salt.

Iron-rich Foods

Iron is one of the keys to good health and energy levels in women. Iron-rich food sources include red meat, chicken, turkey, pork, fish, kale, spinach, beans, lentils and fortified breads and cereals. Plant-based sources of iron are more easily absorbed by your body when eaten with vitamin C-rich foods. So eat fortified cereal with strawberries on top, spinach salad with mandarin orange slices or add tomatoes to lentil soup.

Folic Acid During the Reproductive Years

When women reach childbearing age, they need to eat enough folic acid to decrease risk of birth defects. The requirement is at least 400 micrograms of folic acid a day.

Be sure to consume adequate amounts of folic acid daily from fortified foods or supplements, in addition to food forms of folate from a varied diet. Citrus fruits, leafy greens, beans and peas naturally contain folate. There are many folic acid fortified foods such as cereals, rice and breads.

Daily Calcium Requirements

For healthy bones and teeth, women need to eat a variety of calcium-rich foods every day. Calcium keeps bones strong and prevents osteoporosis, a bone disease in which the bones become weak and break easily. Some calcium-rich foods include low-fat or fat-free milk, yogurt and cheese, sardines, tofu (if made with calcium sulfate) and calcium-fortified foods including juices and cereals.

Foods to Limit

To keep weight in check at any age, women should avoid a lot of excess calories from added sugars, fat and sugar sweetened beverages..

- Limit regular soft drinks, sugar-sweetened beverages, candy, baked goods and fried foods.
- Opt for low-fat dairy and meat products instead of their full-fat counterparts.

Eat fewer foods that are high in saturated fat — the kind found in fatty meats, sausages, cheese and full-fat dairy products, baked goods and pizza.

Balancing Calories with Activity

Since women typically have less muscle, more fat and are smaller than men, you need fewer calories to maintain a healthy body weight and activity level. Moderately active women need 1,800 to 2,200 calories a day. Women who are more physically active may require more calories.

Exercise is an important part of a woman's health. Regular daily activity helps with weight control, muscle strength and stress management.

DOD PROGRAMME Reports

Daughters of Destiny Time Out and special programs online & offline reports from Spain January to August 2017.

One of the assignments that the Lord gave to his handmaiden, Evangelist Toyin Fatunsin in 2017 is to hold a quarterly retreat for women in the city of Zaragoza and a periodic "Time Out" (a mini-conference) in various cities strictly for women.

On January 28th 2017, the first edition of the Daughters of Destiny Retreat was held in Zaragoza Spain as instructed by the Lord and testimonies followed. It was indeed a purposeful beginning as God's daughters received direction from the Lord. It was a fasting program which lasted for 6 hours with prayers, word, diverse ministrations and worship. Words of Prophecies flowed and the power of God backed it up as Evangelist Toyin Fatunsin ministered along other female ministers. Our Daddy in the house, Dr. Olumide Fatunsin rounded up the program with a fatherly blessing.

The second and third editions of the retreat were held on Saturday 19th April and August 18th 2017 respectively. There were outstanding testimonies from past retreats from various sisters and the Lord moved in our midst. The

Another sister testified to divine promotion for her and her husband after the retreat, unemployment of many years came to an end and she was divinely promoted among many of her sisters.

A dear sister also testified that after she got back home from January retreat she began to write a book in less than 48 hours after listening to Evangelist Toyin Fatunsin testimony of a new book during the retreat which the Lord helped her to write, proof read and publish in 48 hours. Sisters went home with copies of the book on 28th of January 2017.

She tapped into the same grace and the Lord helped her over few weeks to put it together. It is with great Joy that our daddy (Dr. Olumide Fatunsin) in the house (He came in to give us fatherly blessing close to the end of the retreat and to dedicate the testifier new book.

testimonies from January & April edition of the retreat turned the retreat around. A sister testified of restoration of purpose and hope after attending, went back home and in a few weeks started a bible club for children in her city and also held on to the fatherly blessing we received from our daddy in the house in January and got another fantastic testimony.

Glory be to the Almighty God for diverse encounter and manifestations of His glory!

DOD PROGRAMME Reports

Daughters of Destiny Time Out and special programs online & offline reports from Spain January to August 2017.

During the year we had lots of special programs which impacted lives and families and were followed by outstanding testimonies. There were special timeout retreats in various cities of Spain, online conferences and the word today on DOD Facebook page and skype.

Each of these programs was life touching and impacted the lives of women while many have also taken to our inboxes and emails to send in their amazing testimonies.

On the 4th of March 2017, we had a time out in the city of Pamplona Spain. This special retreat was a huge success with the theme: "THE WOMAN GOD USES."

In the same month of March 17th - 18th, there was a couples' outreach with the theme: "SERVING JESUS TOGETHER." This special edition of the DOD timeout was hosted by Dr Olumide and Evangelist Toyin Fatunsin in the city of Sevilla Spain.

Among the ministers of this great couples' event was also Pastor Dr David Oloke of the Lifegate Outreach Centre United Kingdom. There were film shows, seminars, interactive sessions and couples' dinner.

Many home at the verge of divorce were restored; marital bliss and peace that have gone sour were also sweetened as the word of God from these great men of God touch marriages and families alike.

On the 8th of April, there was yet another DOD timeout in the city of Palma de Mallorca Spain. The theme was "THE GOD OF A SECOND CHANCE" while the subsequent one was held in the city of Tarragona on the 9th of September with the theme: "YOU CAN GET IT." The power of God moved so mightily during these timeouts and instant testimonies followed as well.
